Fort Lauderdale, Florida ~ Once the epicenter of Spring Break, today Ft. Lauderdale is a year-round destination where culture and cuisine are in ample supply. Beautiful beaches, sunshine, coastline, nightclubs and superb restaurants await you in this Gold Coast enclave. More restaurants and shopping on Las Olas Boulevard or Himmarshee in downtown Ft. Lauderdale are a must. This port city has been called the "Venice of America" due to a comprehensive canal network where you'll find gondolas docked on the Himmarshee Canal off Las Olas Boulevard. Enjoy extensive strolling, shopping, and dining opportunities, as well as the best of sand and sun.

Celebrity Equinox captures the very essence of premium cruising. Shimmering in sophistication from bow to stern, she'll exceed your expectations as soon as you step aboard. Delight in your choice of ten exceptional dining venues. Relax in chic and spacious accommodations. Be surprised to feel grass beneath your feet at the Lawn Club as you sail out to sea. With every imaginable comfort, along with Celebrity's unrivaled guest services, you are bound for an unsurpassed experience no matter your destination.

Cozumel, Mexico

The Conquistadors first saw Mexico from the shores of Cozumel while searching for gold. Today, visitors to the island continue to seek out gold and silver jewelry in the shops. Located 12 miles east of the Yucatán Peninsula, Cozumel's coral reefs make it an underwater sanctuary for hundreds of exotic fish species, while the lush vegetation inland makes it a haven for a range of tropical bird species.

Puerto Limon, Costa Rica

Costa Rica has been a staunch advocate of conservation in its undeveloped areas and its tourist destinations for years. Nature preserves throughout the country, particularly in Puerto Limón, allow the visitor rare exposure to virgin rain forests and bird sanctuaries.

Colon, Panama

As the world's second largest duty-free port, Colón offers abundant shopping. It also represents the gateway to numerous sites of ecological interest, including Chagres National Park, a 3,000,000-acre rainforest preserve, and the Gamboa Rainforest Preserve, which lies within Soberania National Park.

Cartagena, Colombia

Founded in 1533, this Spanish-Colonial city is steeped in history. Its location made it a popular port for plunderers and pirates. Today thrill-seekers will find a perfect mix of old and new with a twist of island attitude. The old city of Cartagena projects the feel of a picture-perfect, Spanish colonial village, with cathedrals like Iglesia de Santo Domingo that dominate the skyline. Cobble streets, balconies with blooming bougainvillea, and pastel plazas make Cartagena one of Latin America's most photogenic cities. Las Bóvedas, the old military dungeons, have been converted to shops, and the string of fortresses provide the perfect vantage points from which to enjoy the harbor.

George Town, Grand Cayman

Once a hot spot and hideout for some of the most notorious pirates ever, Grand Cayman now hosts a much more refined clientele. Stingray City, named as one of the most rewarding experiences in the undersea world by National Geographic, allows swimmers to mingle with stingrays. Among other attractions, visitors to the island will enjoy learning about the turtles, visiting the town of Hell, exploring soft white-sand of Seven-Mile Beach and sensational duty-free shopping abound on this island of treasures.

Weather and Clothing: The weather in the Caribbean should be delightful, with average temperatures ranging from the low 70s to the mid 80s. You may want to bring a light jacket or sweater for cooler temperatures or air conditioning. When vacationing on your cruise, your emphasis should be on casual and comfortable clothing. We suggest casual, resort clothing. One dressy night on board (formal wear not required), woman usually wear cocktail dresses, dressy dresses or dressy pantsuits; men wear suits, or sports coats.

Documentation: Passports are required, valid for six months after your return date (July 2016). Passport applications are available at your local post office. Your name must appear on your airline ticket exactly as it appears on your passport. TSA (Transportation Security Administration) can deny boarding if they do not match exactly. Please forward a copy of your passport to World of Travel, when available.

Deposit and Final Payment: A deposit of $750.00 per person is due at time of booking. Final payment is due on or before October 1, 2015.

Travel Insurance:

The Travel Insured Group Deluxe travel protection plan is available for your purchase. The Schedule of Insurance Coverage and the other services are listed below. The Pre-existing Medical Condition Exclusion will be waived if the protection plan is purchased prior to or with final trip payment, for the full non-refundable trip cost, the booking for the trip is the first and only booking for this travel period and you are not disabled from travel at the time you purchase the travel insurance.
