Common Questions & Hotel Information

WHAT DOCUMENTS DO I NEED? Visitors to South Africa must have a passport that is valid for at least 6 months after the intended departure date. Passports should also have a minimum of two blank passport pages per country visited. The blank pages cannot include the endorsement page at the back of the book. If there is insufficient space in the passport, entry into a country could be denied. If you require a visa, you must ensure that your passport has two blank facing pages - one for the visa and one for the entry stamp. Visitors who intend on traveling to South Africa's neighboring countries and back are advised to apply for multiple entry visas. Visitors must have a return ticket. It is essential that you check current visa and medical requirements at your local embassy or consulate of the country you intend to visit, prior to traveling. Please make a copy of your front and back pages of your passport. Have a copy in your luggage and one at home. Currently: Travelers from the United States are NOT required to obtain an entry visa for South Africa.

- Post-Tour Participants - A One-Time Entry Visa is REQUIRED for Zimbabwe. The fee for this visa is approximately $30 USD and will be applied to your final payment invoice.

WHAT VACCINATIONS (IF ANY) WILL I NEED? CDC recommends that travelers going to certain areas of South Africa take prescription medicine to prevent malaria. Depending on the medicine you take, you will need to start taking this medicine multiple days before your trip, as well as during and after your trip. Talk to your doctor about which (if any) precautions you should take.

- As of the writing of this statement, NO specific vaccinations are REQUIRED to enter South Africa, Kingdom of eSwatini, &/or Zambia - Any updates to requirements will be advised at that time

WHAT WILL THE WEATHER BE LIKE? As late winter transitions to early spring and the thermometer mercury is rising, temperatures remain cool across most of the country and the higher mountains remain covered in snow. The exception is Durban and the KwaZulu-Natal coast, which stay warm, and Kruger is ideal for game viewing. However, pack some cold-weather clothing for early morning game drives, as nights can drop to freezing. With such varying temperatures, bring lots of layers!! At a very mild average of 63°F, Cape Town is distinctly chilly, as is Johannesburg at 68°F, while Kruger averages 79°F.

WHAT TYPE OF CLOTHING WILL I NEED? Casual, comfortable clothing, binoculars, and your sense of adventure are essential for your safari. Muted color, lightweight clothing is best for game viewing. Game drives are generally conducted in the early morning and the late afternoon, which can be cold, especially in winter (August). The temperature often warms up during the day, so it is best to dress in layers.

- Clothes in khaki, green, beige and neutral colors
- T-shirts
- Shorts or a light skirt; Jeans or safari trousers for evenings and cooler days
- Jackets, fleece, sweaters for early morning and late afternoon game drives; A lightweight waterproof jacket in case of rain
- Comfortable walking shoes or sneakers
- Hat or baseball cap
- Warm scarf or pashmina; Gloves or mittens
- LAYERS! LAYERS! LAYERS!

HOW LONG IS THE FLIGHT TO SOUTH AFRICA? Normally, it takes 15-18 hours based on flight scheduling. Schedules will be available about 6 months prior to travel. This means you have time for multiple movies, eating multiple meals, reading your book, and sleeping!

- Are Flight Upgrades Available? Based on availability, there will be an additional fee. For premium economy seats, it is usually between $600-800 per person additional, and for business class, approximately an additional $4,000 per person.

WHAT ARE THE HOTELS LIKE ON THIS TOUR? The hotels and lodges are generally what we would consider to be 3 or 4 stars with modern amenities you would expect: En suite bathrooms, hot showers, comfortable beds, hairdryers, and some spectacular views.

- Hotel - Cape Town (4 Nights): Grand Court Victoria Junction Ideally situated in the heart of the bustling urban district of Green Point, home to some of Cape Town's most exciting shopping, dining, and nightlife. HOW MUCH WALKING WILL THERE BE, AND WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I BE AWARE OF? There isn't too much walking, though you DO have to be physically able to get on and off the vehicles and walk short distances. Most of the walking is over flat terrain. Although we don't climb any mountains, some of the places are up to a mile high (similar altitude to Denver, Colorado).

WHAT ANIMALS COULD I EXPECT TO SEE? Zebras, elephants, warthogs, elands, lions, penguins, and more!

WHAT MAKES THIS TOUR DIFFERENT THAN MOST? This tour is a combination of sightseeing and game viewing whereas most safari programs are primarily game viewing.
