Monday, June 3rd - After breakfast, we will continue to Nags Head to enjoy lunch on your own before arriving at Jockey's Ridge State Park. This park is home to the tallest, living sand dune system on the Atlantic Coast. Bring your walking shoes & climb the dunes or stroll along one of the trails. Later, we will check-in to our accommodations for the next three nights, then head to a delicious dinner at a local restaurant.

Tuesday, June 4th - Following breakfast, we'll start the day with a photo stop at Bodie Lighthouse then on to Fort Raleigh National Historic Site. This site protects & preserves known portions of England's first New World settlements from 1584-1590 and the cultural heritage of the Native Americans, African Americans and European Americans who have lived on Roanoke Island. This afternoon, we will head to the Manteo Waterfront for shopping & time for lunch on your own. Later, we will spend time at the North Carolina Aquarium on Roanoke Island and the Elizabethan Gardens before enjoying a group dinner to end the day.

Wednesday, June 5th - After breakfast, travel to Cape Hatteras National Seashore and visit the Graveyard of the Atlantic. This museum focuses on the history & shipwrecks of the Outer Banks and is named in honor of the thousands of shipwrecks that rest in the waters off North Carolina's coast and dedicated to the preservation & presentation of the state's coastal history. Wrecks associated with piracy, the Revolutionary & Civil Wars, World Wars I & II are some of the subjects of the exhibits. Following lunch on your own at a local pizzeria, continue to Cape Hatteras Lighthouse then Chicamacomico Life-Saving Station Historic Site. With its two stations and five outbuildings, this site is the most complete of all remaining stations in North Carolina. Tonight, we will have our delicious farewell dinner at a lovely local restaurant.

Thursday, June 6th - This morning, following breakfast & hotel check-out, the group will be split, with half starting the day with a tour to observe the wild horses of Corolla and the other half exploring the Whalehead Club & Currituck Lighthouse. Later this morning, the groups will trade off so all will get the same experience! A stop for lunch will be made before leaving the Outer Banks area then we will overnight in Richmond, on our way home.
